

CSC 399: STUDENT INDUSTRIAL WORK EXPERIENCE SCHEME (SIWES)

Students are attached to private and public organizations for six months to make them acquire practical experience and to the extent possible, develop skills in all areas of computing. Students are supervised during the training period and shall be expected to keep records designed to monitor their performance. They are also expected to submit a report on the experience gained and defend their reports in a seminar.