

Interfaith Dialogue as a Catalyst for Sustainability: Enhancing University-Industry Partnerships for Sustainable Development

Olaoye Adenike Mercy

Department of Religions, University of Ilorin, Ilorin, Nigeria

Introduction

Need for Collaboration

Cross-sector work is essential for sustainability success

Main Focus

Interfaith dialogue strengthens academic-industry partnerships

Study Objectives

Examine Role

Interfaith dialogue fosters cultural, religious cooperation

Identify Practices

Best case studies of interfaith in sustainability

Highlight Integration

Embed interfaith views in education and corporations

Provide Guidance

Recommendations for university-industry initiatives

Interfaith Dialogue and Cooperation

Significance

Fosters mutual understanding across religions

Inclusive Approach

Promotes respect and open dialogue for joint action

Best Practices and Case Studies

1

Case Studies

Show impact on environmental, social, economic issues

2

Innovative Solutions

Diverse collaboration delivers fresh sustainability ideas

Integrating Interfaith Perspectives

Education

Incorporate interfaith dialogue in academic programs

Corporate Strategies

Embed faith diversity in sustainability policies

Recommendations

Incorporate Dialogue

In academic and corporate sustainability frameworks

Foster Inclusivity

Respect and integrate diverse perspectives

Leverage Insights

Use faith diversity for innovative solutions

Conclusion

Key Role

Interfaith dialogue builds collaboration and inclusivity

Future Potential

Bridges faiths for sustainable resilient development

Thank You

Contact: Olaoye Adenike Mercy

Email: mercy.aremu@tau.edu.ng | mercy.a.aremu@gmail.com

Phone: +2348132484610

LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/adenike-olaoye-769189285

Next Steps & Takeaways

Expand Dialogue

Broaden interfaith engagement in all sectors

Strengthen Partnerships

Deepen university-industry collaboration

Implement Strategies

Adopt inclusive sustainability frameworks worldwide